

Digital Producer / Project Manager

Derby, £27,000+ p/a, depending on experience + benefits

Subism are looking to hire an experienced Digital Producer / Project Manager with 3+ years digital experience under their belt.

We are looking for a highly organised team player preferably with some knowledge of agile workflows. Regular liaising with team and clients will mean you'll need clear and concise communication. Experience required for the role include:

- Deliver quality projects on brief, on time and on budget.
- Great communication skills
- Managing multiple digital projects
- Managing the specification documents
- Managing project schedule and finances
- Liaising with both clients and in-house team
- Experience or knowledge of agile workflows would be a bonus